GREAT PLACES TO EAT

Sydney Tower

Sydney's tallest structure, spectacular 360 degree views of the Sydney. 2 restaurants, one a la carte and one buffet style. Located in the Centre of the City.

China Town

Around 80 or so restaurants bars and cafes. Not exclusively Chinese, there is a wonderful mixture of Vietnamese, Thai, Korean and Japanese. Many restaurants here are open until 3 or 4 am. Food Halls offer particularly good value. Near Central Station.

Woolloomooloo

The famous Harry's Café de Wheels at Cowper Wharf Road, Woolloomooloo has been operating since the 1950's. This street stall is the home of the Sydney version of a pie floater. Open 'till the wee hours. Alongside is the Finger Wharf development, with great outdoor and indoor restaurants overlooking the harbour.

Darling Harbour

Spend a day visting attractions to cater to all tastes and ages. Fabulous shopping, movies, food stalls, cafes and fine dining restaurants. All located on the Harbour foreshores.

Watsons Bay

The famous Doyles Seafood restaurant, is on the beach at Watsons Bay. Catch the ferry from Circular Quay and cruise the harbour to your restaurant. Sit alongside the beach and enjoy fresh catch seafood.
